

four, and shall be purchased for 10,000 francs. The statues shall be two metres high, and shall be purchased for 15,000 francs. The Government will supply the marble. 28th. The relations between France and England are the treaty of Amiens, all the treaty of Amiens, nothing but the treaty of Amiens!

All the evils, all the plagues that afflict mankind come from London.

31 st, Rouen:

(To the Consul Cambac&r&s.) It is five in the afternoon. I got on horseback at eight this morning to inspect the heights about Rouen. The Archbishop, who is much loved and esteemed, was obliging enough to say mass for us; but he gave us neither holy water nor a sermon. We shall make up to-morrow, which is All Saints' day. I have just received the officials, and have had to talk much and long. I am very pleased with the sentiments of the coun-try.

November 2d, Rouen:

I was present yesterday at a fete given me by the city. There was a very large and fine company. To-morrow night I shall be at a fete given by the Commerce of Rouen. Thursday there will be a parade. I shall see the market Friday, market day. I shall start for Havre immediately.
